

1141-1142 of the Legislative Journal.) 19 ayes, 28 nays on the kill motion, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The kill motion fails. Before we continue, Mr. Clerk, we have several guests today and if you would please stand as I call your name and then we will welcome you at the end of announcing all of your names, please. Senator Kahle has Doris Thompson from Minden, Nebraska, under the north balcony and she is a member of the Legislative Contact Team for the NSEA. Senator Haberman has guests in the south balcony, I assume he means under the south balcony, Dennis and Karen Svoboda and their daughter, Sara Ann Svoboda, from Lincoln. Senator Marsh has 50 guests in the third and fourth grades from Holmes School in Lincoln in the north balcony. Under the south balcony Fred Mack from Dawson, Nebraska, is a guest of Senator Remmers. And Senator Hefner, under the north balcony has three guests, Melvin Howell, Bloomfield, Thomas Mischke of Bloomfield, and James Ankeny of Hartington. Senator Haberman has guests, Barbara Zulauf from Sutherland, Bill Fitcher of Sutherland, Larry Larreau of Stratton, Marvin Zulauf of Sutherland and Monica Zulauf of Sutherland and I don't know where they are but if you will please stand we will notice you. Senator Lowell Johnson has guests visiting today. They are Rick Geier, a teacher from Fremont High School, Joanne Thietje, a speech pathologist from Fremont High School, and Linda Myers, a teacher at North Bend Central High School. Senator Marsh has teachers under the south balcony, Sue Clifford, Gayla Nelsen, Barbara Johnson Frank, and Barbara Shaeffer. Senator Jim Goll has guests, Mrs. Catherine McMurtrey from Oakland, Nebraska, and she also is a NSEA Legislative Contact person from District 16. Would you please welcome all of these guests to our Legislature. Thank you. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, your committee on Enrollment and Review respectfully reports they have carefully examined and reviewed LB 979 and report the same to Select File, 1045, 1059, 1064, 968 all to Select File. (See page 1142 of the Legislative Journal.)

Senator DeCamp would move LB 887. That will be laid over